BARN, CROPS AND HORSES BURNED

Charles Schwartz Loses Heavily in Fire Caused by Lightning during Storm Early Sunday Afternoon. Had Insurance.

Sunday afternoon's electrical storm resulted in the complete destruction of the large barn of Charles Schwartz, located midway between Barlow and Two Taverns, together with all the crops, four horses and several other buildings. Mr. Schwartz and his family were at the home of Samuel Weikert in Gettysburg at the time of the fire. The barn was struck during the first of the three storms which visited this section Sunday afternoon and evening and the flames were first discovered shortly after one o'clock. Cleveland Miller and J. Carra Smith, neighbors, were the first to see the fire and, when they discovered it, the entire upper part of the building was in flames. An alarm was soon sent through that section of the county and Mr. Schwartz's friends hurried to the scene.

So far had the fire progressed when they arrived that it was impossible to get anything out of the barn. The building was seventy five feet long and well filled with the crops of the harvest just recently finished. Immense mows were stocked with the products of the year's work and all were totally destroyed. Mr. Miller and Mr. Smith were unable to get out the horses and four fine animals burned in the fire. The large wagonshed adjoining the barn was completely destroyed together with two large wagons and the windmill was also burned down.

The dwelling not far distant caught fire at the roof from the blaze at the barn and it was saved with the greatest difficulty. Some of the furniture had already been removed from the house before the blaze was conquered and Mr. Schwartz owes the saving of his dwelling to the promptness and energy of his friends.

He carried insurance of $1200 on the barn in the Adams County Mutual Fire Insurance Company; $500 on the crops and $400 on the stock in the Gettysburg Mutual Company.

Mr. Schwartz is not overcome by his misfortune but stated cheerfully this morning to The Times that he would rebuild at once.

The old Sachs ice house near the water pumping station was blown down during Sunday's storms but no further damage from wind is reported.

POOR RETURN FOR ACT OF KINDNESS

Helped Auto Party in Trouble and they, in Turn, Went away Taking Along Money and Certificate of Deposit for $2000.

As the return for an act of kindness, Bruce Wagner, living between York Springs and Dillsburg, is to-day mourning the loss of $10 in cash and a certificate for $200 on a Dillsburg bank.

Mr. Wagner was driving near Clear Spring on Saturday when he came upon a middle aged couple in an automobile which they could not move. Mr. Wagner got out of his own vehicle, turned the crank and tried in other ways to get the machine going but failed. In his exertion he became very warm and took off his coat, in which was a wallet containing the cash and the certificate, and laid it on the rear seat of the car.

He then renewed his operations and finally succeeded in getting the machine to go. The couple who were entire strangers to Mr. Wagner whizzed away merrily while he called after them to stop so that he could get his coat. They paid no attention and kept on. Mr. Wagner followed and some distance down the road, about two miles from York Springs, he found the coat lying at the side of the highway. Investigation proved that the valuables had been removed.

Mr. Wagner immediately communicated with County Detective Wilson to be on the lookout for the party coming into Gettysburg and Mr. Wilson watched carefully but they evidently took another route.

Mr. Wagner is hoping that he may receive the return of his possessions by mail but it is scarcely believed that he will have that happy experience.

ESCAPED EASILY

Emmitsburg Authorities Looking for Pete White, Escaped Prisoner.

Emmitsburg authorities are looking for Pete White, six feet three inches tall, and a powerfully built man who on Thursday night showed Emmitsburg that an iron cage is no terror for him. White is from near Mt. St. Mary's, and often indulges too freely, and when put in the cage on Thursday night it was thought he would hardly be able to move until morning. When morning came the cage was still locked, but White had flown. It was later discovered, that White had in some manner forced off one of the steel plates of the top of the cell, and had carefully replaced it, after getting out, so that for some time the officers could not learn how White escaped.

Once out of the cell he left by a rear door and is now supposed to be quietly enjoying himself at his home near Mt. St. Mary's.

All arrangements have been completed for the fourteenth annual convention of the Adams County Sabbath School Association which will be held August 21 and 22 in St. Paul's Lutheran church, Biglerville. Two new features this year will be the parade, and the luncheon in which all Teacher Training graduates will participate.

Three bands will take part in the big parade of Sunday School workers to be held Friday evening, August 22, at six o'clock, the Biglerville, Bendersville and Gettysburg bands all accepting invitations to be there. Sunday School teachers and pupils from all over the county will be in line and two banners are to be given, one to the school having the largest attendance in the parade and the other to the school coming the greatest distance.

The Teacher Training Alumni luncheon will be held at the Biglerville restaurant on Thursday evening at five o'clock. It was originally announced for Friday but the time has been changed. All graduates of this department of Sunday School work are invited to attend whether or not they have received the formal letters of invitation, and are requested to send notification of their intention to be present.

Burger will speak on "The Sunday School and Missions", there will be a social recess and business session and the last two periods will be taken up with two discussions, "Graded Lessons", by Rev. In the evening a praise service will be led by I. L. Taylor, of Gettysburg, and a large chorus; the devotions will be conducted by T. J. Winebrenner, of Gettysburg; there will be a half hour's illustrated talk to the children by Rev. J. B. Baker, of Gettysburg; and an address on "Present Day Sunday School Opportunities", by Rev. W. K. Fleck, of Fairfield.

Friday morning's session will include the following: devotional service, G. H. Knouse, of Biglerville; "The Importance of Preparing the Lesson by the Teacher", Prof. Roy Knouse, of Arendtsville; "Home Department", Rev. George Dowe; business session; "The O. A. B. C. and Community Service", Rev. George Dowe; "Boys' Classes and Round Table", Rev. F. E. Taylor, of Gettysburg; "Temperance Instruction in the Sabbath School", Dr. L. L. Sieber, of Gettysburg.

The afternoon devotions will be led by William B. Deardorff, of Mummarsburg; Dr. J. A. Clutz, of Gettysburg, will conduct an informal discussion on "Sunday School Methods"; C. S. Reaser, of Gettysburg, will talk on "A Model Sunday School"; Miss Nettie Swartz, of New Oxford, will lead a round table conference on "Missions"; there will be a business meeting and election of officers and the last period of the afternoon will be filled by Prof. C. F. Sanders, of Gettysburg, whose subject will be "Teacher Training."

The evening session will follow the parade and will be preceded by Mr. Taylor and his chorus who will have their second praise service. The devotional service will be in charge of Rev. N. B. S. Thomas, of Biglerville; Rev. J. B. Baker will give an illustrated talk and Dr. J. A. Clutz will speak on "Sunday School Evangelism."

WANTS $2000 FOR BEING IN JAIL

Dog Episode at Pen Mar Park Has New Development when Man Asks Two Thousand Dollars for Having been Jailed.

The case against W. W. Winebrenner, Highfield, and William Bannister, Waynesboro, who were locked up at Pen Mar park, last Sunday, Bannister because he did not remove a dog from the park when instructed to do so by a policeman, and Winebrenner because he offered to bail Bannister out, was dismissed by Justice Ferguson.

After offering testimony to prove that the men were creating a disturbance, the charge was withdrawn and the men discharged.

As a result of the arrest Mr. Winebrenner, who is a merchant at Highfield, by Attorney L. D. Syester, Friday filed a suit for $2000 damages against the Western Maryland Railway company, for assault.

He alleges that the defendant did assault and beat him and imprison him for a long time, depriving him of his liberty and freedom, whereby he suffered great pain of body and mind and was exposed to great humiliation and indignity.

The second count recites that the railroad owns Pen Mar park and conducts it; that the plaintiff was a visitor at the park; that the defendant employed a policeman on August 3 to preserve order in the park; that while the defendant was at the park the policeman did "assault, beat and maltreat" him.

GIVEN GOLD MEDAL

Gets Medal for Service at Time of the Anniversary.

In appreciation of the record made by the Western Maryland at the time of the battle anniversary in hauling 30,000 passengers without accident, and of the individual services rendered by President J. M. Fitzgerald, Governor Tener and the members of the Gettysburg Commission have just presented the chief executive of the railway company a gold medal.

The medal was presented on behalf of Governor Tener and the commission by its secretary, Lewis E. Beitler, who took the opportunity to praise, in the highest terms, the service accorded by the Western Maryland, and the willingness shown on the part of the head of the road to provide every facility for the prompt and safe movement of the old soldiers.

In the letter which accompanied the emblem, Mr. Beitler stated as follows: "By direction of His Excellency, the Governor and our Commission, I have the honor to present to you the medal of gold in appreciation of the splendid services individually rendered by you and also by your road in handling so successfully the great volume of traffic in and out of Gettysburg during the Reunion Celebration. The promptness with which your train movements were made, was, in view of the extraordinary conditions prevailing, in itself, most commendable, but above and beyond all was the splendid achievement of no accident of the slightest character occurring during the entire period."

MAY SPREAD INFECTION

Careless Handling of Hog Cholera May Spread Infection.

One of the hogs which died in Gettysburg during the past few days from cholera was hauled by an unknown party to the old ice pond east of town and thrown out at the side of the road. The animal weighed about two hundred pounds and the presence of the carcass in the open would do much toward spreading the disease should other animals come in contact. The authorities are endeavoring to find the guilty party.

THREE DEAD IN PHILA. STORMS

Woman, Girl and Baby Victims of Terrific Gale.

WIND BLEW 60 MILES HOUR

Houses Were Unroofed, Parks and Public Squares Littered With Trees
and Hundreds of Cellars Flooded.

Philadelphia, Aug. 11.—A girl and a young woman and a baby are dead, scores are hurt, families are living in borrowed homes, the parks and public square and streets are littered with fallen trees, telegraph and telephone poles are down, cellars are flooded—this is a partial toll of one of the worst storms that ever swept through Philadelphia and vicinity.

A series of three storms in quick succession and continuing intermittently caused havoc with life and property. The single relieving feature was the lowering of a temperature
that of itself had caused no mean suffering.

The dead are: Agnes Murphy, nineteen years old, of 1770 North Newkirk street; Lottie Germier, forty years old, of 2747 Eddington street; James McNamee, infant, of 2608 Salmon street.

Miss Murphy was killed by a tree which fell at the very beginning of the storm. It happened near the city line in Fairmount park. Miss Murphy was just in the act of snapping a landscape picture with a small kodak she carried. She was dead when carried into St. Timothy's hospital.

Miss Germier came to her death by drowning. With Samuel Arkshaw, of Chester, and James Richardson, she was rowing in the Delaware river.
When the storm broke a quick attempt was made for shore, but the haste caused the overturning of the boat, and she was drowned. The men got to shore all right and were placed under arrest.

An eleven-months-old baby, James,
son of Patrick McNamee, 2608 Salmon street, was killed by a falling tree during the wind storm prior to he rain
in Our Mother of Sorrows cemetery.
The child was with its father and seven-year-old brother, Patrick, Jr., when the accident happened. Both the brother and father were injured by the falling tree and were treated at the West Philadelphia Homeopathic hospital.

The storm played freaks all over the city and lightning literally played ten-pins with trees. Traffic was everywhere delayed, and so severe was the rainfall in Manayunk and Roxborough
that traveling automobiles were stalled because the water rose above the floor of the machines and stopped the machinery.

For a minute—when the disturbance was at its worst—the velocity of the wind was at the rate of sixty miles an hour. The maximum was rated forty-eight miles an hour.

Thirty-five persons were injured by the falling of the roof of the George's Hill picnic pavilion shortly after the storm started. More than 200 persons were crowded into the small space,
which afforded the only place of shelter in that section of the park when a gust of wind blew all the braces
from under the roof. The conical shape of the roof was the only thing that saved many from being killed and more injured, according to those who escaped unhurt.

When the roof fell those in the center were imprisoned under the huge tent shape covering, but were unhurt.

Two serious cases of injury are those of Miss Anna Gratz, of 1733 Moore street, and Hugh Gallagher, of 1732 Wood street. Miss Gratz was at Woodside park and was struck by a falling tree. Both of her legs were broken. Gallagher was working on the roof of his home and toppled over when the wind hurled him from behind. He struck on his head and may die.

The damage of the storm was general. A great part of it was caused by the trees that were uprooted. Fairmount park was as desolate as it was devastated five minutes after the storm began. Pavilions were sought, and unfortunately sometimes, for the roofs were no more stable than on some of the houses. In Logan, Rittenhouse, Washington and Independence squares trees of scores of years were uprooted.

More than twenty-five trees were blown down in Our Mother of Sorrows cemetery, at Forty-eighth street and Glad avenue. The neighborhood at Forty-second street and Woodland avenue was badly cut up by lowered trees
and poles.

At Broad street station a flag pole blew down, and at Broad and Filbert streets part of a small tower blew down. Several windows on the Juniper street side of Wanamaker's store were blown in.

Baffled by Gem Thefts.

Narragansett, R. I., Aug. 11.—At the suggestion of the head of the detective agency she employs, Mrs. John H. Hanan will reduce the number of men who have been trying to solve the mystery of the $150,000 jewel robbery at her home, Shore Acres, two weeks ago. R. M. Goldowsky, who has been in charge of the case, told Mrs.
Hanan that he was completely baffled and did not have a tangible clue to work upon.

PEACE PACT SIGNED BY BALKAN STATES

Loss of Life and Treasure
Was Enormous.

Bucharest, Roumania, Aug. 11.—The peace treaty between the Balkan states was signed here yesterday.

In honor of the occasion the city was decorated with flags and guns were fired, bells were rung and the bands played.

The two wars in which the Balkan states have been embroiled have been extremely costly in human life and treasure. An Italian correspondent who has visited all the chief cities of conflict has made an approximate table
of the losses in men and money up to the present of the combatant nations. For the first war his estimate is as follows:

Bulgaria—350,000 soldiers mobilized; 50,000 dead; $300,000,000.
Serbia—250,000 soldiers; 30,000
dead; $160,000,000.
Greece—10,000 dead out of 150,000;
$70,000,000.

Montenegro—8000 dead out of 30,
000; $4,000,000.
Turkey—450,000; 100,000 dead;
$400,000,000.

For the second war his figures are
as follows:

Bulgaria—60,000 dead; $180,000,000.
Serbia—40,000; $100,000,000.
Greece—20,000; $50,000,000.

When the number of persons massacred and the victims of the cholera epidemics are added to the totals it is reckoned that nearly 400,000 must have perished. The monetary loss all told is said to be $1,350,000,000. The Boer war cost England 20,000 dead

Tainted Delicacy Also Makes 30 Others Seriously Ill.

Mosierstown, Pa., Aug. 11.—Tainted ice cream, according to state health authorities, is responsible for the deaths of two persons and the serious illness of thirty others here.

Of the latter four are believed to be dying. The disease, it is said, seems to be a complication of typhoid fever and ptomaine poisoning.

The dead are Paul Bacon, eighteen years old, of Mosierstown, and Clyde Barnes, eighteen years old, of Hickerman's Corners.

The ice cream was eaten at a party
several weeks ago.

ty. Thomas and Bug Alger are charged with the murder.

Gray, accompanied by a young woman, was returning from preaching, when he is alleged to have been knocked down, severely beaten and cut through the abdomen so badly
that death ensued in a few hours.

The murder is said to have had its origin from an old grudge between the Gray and Alger families.

LIND LEAVES FOR MEXICO CITY

Wilson's Envoy Pushes on in Face of Huerta's Ban.

ACCOMPANIED BY W. B. MALE

U. S. Warships Take American Refugees From Danger Zone at Em-palme, Mex.

Vera Cruz, Mex., Aug. 11.—John Lind, President Wilson's personal representative, and Mrs. Lind and Dr.
William Bayard Hale, who has been in Mexico for some time studying conditions on behalf of President Wilson, left here on a regular passenger train
bound for Mexico City.

Mr. Lind goes into the Mexican capital in the face of covert danger, despite that he has received unqualified assurance of safety.

The private envoy is persona non grata with the Huerta government, as was definitely stated by Huerta several days ago. For Mr. Lind possesses no credentials, and it is known by all that he is under orders not to transmit to Huerta the recognition of the United States, which Huerta demands.

"I know nothing about the situation or the conditions here. Is it safe for me to go to Mexico City?"

This was the question John Lind asked W. W. Canada, American consul at Vera Cruz, when he was greeted by him on board the battleship New Hampshire.

"You can go any time you care to,
and be as safe as though you were in your own home in Minnesota," was the reply of Mr. Canada.

Americans Leave Danger Zone.

Washington, Aug. 11.—Safe removal of American citizens desiring to leave the danger zone in the vicinity of Em-palme, Mex., was reported to the navy department by Rear Admiral Cowles, commanding the American Pacific coast fleet, from Guaymas.

The refugees are being taken care of on the cruiser Pittsburgh and the supply ship Glacier and will be sent to the United States, according to Admiral Cowles' wireless dispatch.

"The local authorities," reported the admiral, "have delivered over L. H.
Morrison to the commander of the Pittsburgh for transportation to the United States, and William Zierlek,
now being taken care of on the Glacier, will go north on that ship. The consul made all arrangements for the transportation from Empalme to Guaymas of Mrs. G. C. White and Mrs. H. I.
Martin in order to take them to the Pittsburgh. General Manager Hines, of the Southern Pacific company, ordered an Empalme railroad official north by rail, and he has gone that way. Arrangements have been made for transportation by the Glacier for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hopkins, Mrs. David
Gibson and five small children."

The Americans reported removed to the warships are families of prominent Americans for whom anxiety has been felt for some time.

AMUCK. CRAZED BY DRINK

Fire, Shooting and Attempt to Murder
Mark Man's Hideous Night.

Green Castle, Ind., Aug. 11.—Otis
Sanford, a painter, crazed by drink, ran amuck in the neighborhood of Bainbridge, near here, and received injuries which will cause his death.

Sanford went to the home of his wife, who had filed suit for divorce,
and aroused her and the three children. Their screams attracted the woman's father, Aaron Hand, and her brother, Ray Hand, who lived in an adjoining house.

The two men took shotguns, but Sanford had disappeared. They sent Mrs. Sanford and the children to the Hand home and sat down to await Sanford's return. In a few minutes flames began issuing from Hand's barn, Sanford's corner crib and the other outbuildings.

While the two men were fighting the fire they were recalled to the house by Mrs. Sanford and her daughter screaming that Sanford was in the house trying to set it on fire and kill his wife.

Ray Hand grabbed his shotgun again. He saw Sanford with a knife in his hand standing over his wife and fired. The load of shot struck the would-be murderer in the shoulder and he staggered into the yard and fell. A younger sister of Mrs. Hand, fearing another attack, pounced upon him with a club.

Sanford aroused himself and reeled off into a cornfield, where he was found several hours later by neighbors attracted by the flames, screams and shots. He had cut his throat and will die.

Bolt Carries Man Around Room.

Lititz, Pa., Aug. 11.—Lightning partially wrecked the home of Abram Zartman, of Speedwell. Five persons were in the kitchen when the bolt came down the chimney. One man was lifted and carried to another part of the room, another's hat was torn,
and all were shocked. The ceiling, weather boarding and walls were splintered.

Woman Tells How She Was Cured by Reliable Skin Remedy.

Mrs. M. J. Downing, 2527 Rucker avenue, Everett, Wash., says: "I want to tell you how I was cured by Saxo Salve. I had a breaking out on my forehead and all around my ears, and some on my scalp, which was very annoying. I tried different remedies without benefit and went into Darling's drug store, thinking to get some other remedy, but Mr. Darling wanted me to try Saxo Salve. I did so and it certainly cured my trouble in a very short time, and also my sister had scalp trouble, which it cured. I would willingly recommend it to every one and am very grateful for the relief."

When Will Gettysburg People Learn
the Importance of It?

Backache is only a simple thing at first;

But if you find 'tis from the kid-

That serious kidney troubles may

That dropsy or Bright's disease

You will be glad to know the fol-

Mrs. C. F. Brinkerhoff, 25 Breck-

"One of my family has had great benefit from Doan's Kidney Pills and we willingly recommend them. Last winter the one had a severe attack of kidney complaint and pains in the small of his back. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills made a cure."

GUNMEN MURDER TWO BROTHERS

Shot to Death on Street Near Their Home.

Newark, N. J., Aug. 11.—Two brothers, Caspar and Joseph Provenzano, were murdered while on their way from work. They were killed by four gunmen almost within sight of their home.

One of the shots fired hit Mrs. Elizabeth Richards, who was passing by at the time. She was taken to the City hospital, seriously wounded. Another Provenzano brother, Salvatore, was with the two who were killed and is now also in the hospital, overcome by the death of his brothers.

The police have made no arrests in the case, though it is understood they know to whom to trace the murders. They are supposed to be four men who were discharged a short time ago by one of the Provenzanos, who is the foreman of a gang of coal passers on a Coney Island ferry boat.

There was trouble in the stockhold last week, and four Italians were discharged, following the outbreak. It is supposed they followed the brothers after their night's work and shot them down in the quiet street in which they live. They made their escape before the police were called.

NO MORE LAND FOR JAPS

California's Troublesome Anti-Alien Law Operative.

San Francisco, Aug. 11.—Saturday was the last day under the alien land act passed by the late legislature on which Japanese either as individuals or corporations might acquire land in California.

Individuals now holding land may continue to hold it during their natural lives, but may not devise it to Japanese heirs. Corporations formed before the law went into effect may hold land for fifty years. A number of such corporations have recently been recorded. Attorney General Webb, who revised the bill into its present form, said:

"No object of the law has been defeated by these corporations. The law was not intended to force Japanese now owning land to part with it at once or within any fixed period. They were to be permitted to hold it during their lives. By forming corporations they merely extended their time of ownership."

GIRL AND SNAKES IN ACCORD

She Plays With Them and They Won't Hurt Her.

York, Pa., Aug. 11.—With a six-foot blacksnake coiled about her arms and waist, Mollie Hibner, a pretty Coney Island girl, created a sensation in a city market.

Hiss Hibner caught the snake after it had plundered a guinea hen's nest, and she invited persons who stood about in awed wonder to feel the shape of the eggs, still unbroken, in its stomach.

Her parents say she has played fearlessly with all sorts of snakes, including copperheads and rattlers, since she was a baby, and that they never hurt her.

IMPEACH SULZER. TAMMANY PLAN

Committee's Report May Be Ready Tonight.

QUICK ACTION IS SOUGHT

Democratic Bosses Prefer Impeachment to Court Action, Though That May Follow Later.

New York, Aug. 11.—Tonight, if possible, the Tammanyized Frawley committee will lay before the legislature the conclusions it has drawn from its inquiry into Governor Sulzer's stock speculations during the course of his campaign last fall. The report will not, in any event, be delayed beyond Wednesday.

The report, it is said by Chairman Frawley, will consist of the record of the evidence, a digest of what the committee believes it has proved and probably recommendations as to what action should be taken thereon. It is possible, however, that the evidence will go to the senate and house without any recommendations whatever.

It was understood that the report would lay stress on three things adduced in the testimony:

First—That Governor Sulzer is chargeable with perjury, in that he swore that he had received "directly or indirectly" not more than $5240 for campaign contributions.

Second—That he wrote a letter to the Farmers' Loan and Trust company stating that he had authorized his secretary, Louis A. Sarecky, to accept campaign contributions and that Sarecky had deposited $12,000 in the bank during the campaign.

Third—That a number of unreported campaign contributions were used by the governor to purchase stocks in Wall street.

If ingenuity and determination can achieve it, there can be but one consequence of the conclusions in this report—a demand by the assembly for the impeachment of the governor. Although provisions for the impeachment of executive officers are contained in the constitution of every state in the Union, history does not record the taking of such action against a governor.

This is one of the reasons why Tammany is set upon bringing Sulzer to the bar of a court of impeachment. Even to put him upon trial would be a revenge without precedent; to convict him would be a deadly reprisal, as the leaders of Tammany regard it.

There is another reason why impeachment will be attempted rather than the course earlier taken under consideration—that of bringing action in a criminal court on a charge of perjury, alleging that the governor did not truthfully declare his campaign receipts and expenditures.

A trial in court would require months, perhaps years. Even after a verdict had been gained there would come the all but interminable appeals, which would probably not stop short of the supreme court of the United States.

Quick action is what Tammany wants, and there is, besides, the constitutional provision that impeachment shall not stand in the way of prosecution in the courts. If Tammany's desire for vengeance should not be appeased by the governor's impeachment, his conviction might easily be sought in another court.

The friends of Governor Sulzer beyond insisting that the law does not forbid the omission of contributions from accounts, hold that the legislature is without authority to act at this session. They insist that impeachment proceedings can only be begun at a regular session or at a session called specifically for such a purpose.

It is further contended that complaint cannot be made against a governor for any act except one in the course of his term of office. These campaign fund matters are, of course, matters of a period before Mr. Sulzer took office.

CIGARS AS GERM-KILLERS

Smoking Five Minutes Said to Sterilize the Mouth.

Paris, Aug. 11.—Tobacco is exceedingly efficacious in the killing of microbes, according to Messrs. Langlais and Sartory, who say their experiments have shown that in five minutes tobacco smoke will kill almost all the microbes in the saliva, thus nearly completely sterilizing the mouth.

One of the experiments carried out by M. M. Langlais and Sartory was to place several cigars in water containing many million cholera microbes to the square inch. The tobacco sterilized and destroyed the microbes in twenty-four hours.

GIRL HERO JUMPED ON RUNAWAY'S BACK

Her Remarkable Feat Saved
Young Man's Life.

Sharon, Pa., Aug. 11.—Frances Heaney, a little country girl of Arthurholt's Mills, near this city, at the risk of her own life, saved that of little Frank Hanna by jumping on a runaway horse's back while it was going at full speed.

Here is her modest description of her heroic and difficult feat:

"I was driving along the Yankee run road near the Perkins farm. There was a young man in a rig just ahead of me. His horse took fright at some metal pipes and wheeled around, upsetting the rig and throwing him directly under it. The horse started in my direction. I pulled my rig to the side of the road as quickly as I could and jumped out.

"When the horse went by I grasped for the bridle, but missed it. I succeeded in getting a hold of the harness and was dragged some distance. In some way I managed to pull myself up on the horse's back. I then reached forward and caught the bridle reins as near the horse's mouth as possible. I pulled on the reins and brought the animal down to a trot and finally to a standstill.

"Then I tied the horse to a fence and got a piece of rail and raised the wagon off the young man, who by this time was unconscious. I feared at the time he was dead, for he had been dragged some distance under the wagon. In a short time, however, he rallied and helped me to get the rig straightened around. He was able to drive home."

PITCHER JOHNSON. M. D.

Base Ball and Letter to Youthful Fan Better Than Medicine.

Washington, Aug. 11.—A base ball and an autograph letter from Walter Johnson, Washington's premier pitcher, did more than medicine to bring about the rapid convalescence of Warren A. Snee, a youthful admirer of the big ball toter.

Johnson, whose numerous admirers include scores of youthful "fans," who idolized the pitcher, heard of the serious illness of the lad and wrote to him, sending a base ball he had used in pitching the Washington team to victory. The boy's recovery since receiving the letter has progressed rapidly.

Broken sizes and odd lots simply MUST be moved to make way for our Fall Styles now on the way. We believe it better business to take a loss on our "left-overs" rather than carry them over until another year. Hence the surprisingly low prices.

Barbers Act as Coroners.

In Egypt a large proportion of the barbers are state functionaries. According to an edict issued by Ibrahim Pasha in 1848, every village barber was ordered, when death occurred in his district, to make a careful examination of the corpse, and report to the authorities any death occurring through epidemic, disease or foul play. Severe penalties were imposed for any neglect of this duty, and a fee of 5 cents was paid for each death registered. Five years ago the system of payment by fees was abolished and each village barber now draws from the government a fixed salary for his services.

Making a Stove Look New.

An old stove can be made to look like new by, first of all, washing it with hot soap suds containing an alkali to cut the grease, etc. Mix with any good stove blacking a teaspoon of turpentine. Apply to stove, and when nearly dry polish in the usual way. The turpentine keeps the blacking from flying. Nickel-work on the stoves can be cleaned by applying wood ash and vinegar mixed to a paste. Apply, and rub or dust. Zinc: Wash clean, then rub with cloth soaked with kerosene.

Sounds Reasonable.

"As I understand it," said a gentleman, "oleomargarine is made of beef fat." "You are undoubtedly right," said his companion. "I should think that the manufacturers would make it of goat fat." "Why?" "Because the goat is a natural butter."—Detroit Free Press.

Long Life of Clocks.

Of all machines made by man none can compare for long life with the clock. The life of a clock is as much longer than that of any other machinery as the life of a man is longer than that of a dog. The French city of Rouen has a great clock which was built in the year 1389 and is still keeping good time. Except for cleaning and a few necessary repairs it has never stopped during a period of more than five centuries. It strikes the hours and chimes the quarters.

Snail Shells in Demand.

More than 600,000 pounds of snail shells are shipped out of Malaysia every year to Europe and America to be used in the making of buttons and novelties. The shells, when of good quality, bring about 16 cents a pound in New York. The shells are taken from the ocean by fishermen and sold through Chinese collectors to European firms at Singapore.

Time's Changes.

"My grandfather," said the old timer, "used to put all his money in his stocking." "Wa-al, things hain't changed much," said his old friend. "My grandson, who's takin' a course in modern colleges, puts most of his money into socks."—Judge.

Not All the Requirements.

Discussing a rather Bohemian set in Chicago, George Ade said at the Chicago Athletic club: "These poor girls needn't think themselves literary just because they use a pencil to darken their eyebrows with."
